President's Notes

Happy New Year,

I hope that it was a great holiday for you and your family. I really enjoyed getting to drop-in 'briefly' for the party and thanks to the officers and club for the nice gift card. The officers, as usual, have done a lot of 'work' over the year. The kind of work that keeps the club and show going successfully over the year.

Speaking of officers, a word of thanks to Michael Zink for taking care of the treasury position for several years. We are very fortunate that Linda Person has volunteered to take that position. She had been the treasurer for Caprock Classic club in the past.

Fortunately, Dave will remain VP again this year, along with Todd as secretary, Dennis MCA, Ed at Newsletter, Linda's husband Tommy for Events (they make a great team).

In addition to Michael's retirement, Dave Hunt will be leaving the club, unfortunately and we will miss his expertise on the Web page.

So we do NEED a Historian for photos of club events and to manage the web site and Facebook. I've been doing a hit-miss job on Facebook since I have 2 of my own to try to manage.

It's not a lot of work. Most of the time officers take photos at events that can be used so it's mostly managing the web and Facebook.

I'll see if I can wrap up my comments and we appreciate all of our sponsors and have commitments from NAPA and Brad Birdsong for 2023 so far.

We also presented to $1,200 scholarship checks to Wayland University as a way of saying Thanks to them for allowing us to have our show on the campus.

I want to THANK everyone that brought a toy for the Christmas is For Kids campaign. It was a great support for the kids in CPS.

Last item, Lubbock Police found the person that looted our account and he will be prosecuted and FBT will be returning all of our funds when they get all the police documents.

I hope that the New Year brings you good health and happiness.

John

Meeting Minutes

Meeting notes for December 17th, 2022.

Immediately before the Christmas Party a brief meeting occurred. David Flett called the meeting to order at roughly 6:00 pm. The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited and observed. All veterans in attendance were recognized. Tommy Persons led us all in a Toast to Friends not Present.

This meeting was rather short and informal. Nominations and elections for new officers was performed. The new officers are listed below:

President	John Robison
Vice President	David Flett
Treasurer	Linda Persons
Secretary	Todd Carr
Historian and Web Page Administrator	To be determined at January 5th meeting.

Following the nominations and elections, Sprague Fleming helped us recognize some of the first ladies of the Lubbock Mustang Club. They, along with their husbands, started the LMC back in 1981. Shortly after that, scholarship checks were given to Wayland Baptist University to be awarded to several outstanding students. The last order of business was a vote for next year's Christmas Party. The result of which puts us back at Hillcrest Country Club for Saturday, December 16th, 2023. Following these events was dinner, then a spirited game of HORSE. Dinner was great and the fellowship was even better. It was a great party and we even had some food left over after dinner!

The party was adjourned at roughly 8:00 pm. Collection for 2023 dues will begin at the next meeting on January 5th, 2023, at 7:00 pm. Yearly dues are $30.00.

Mustang Meet n Eat at Buns Over Texas, Thursday, January, 19th at 6:00 pm.

Coffee n Cars at Gene Messer Ford, 6000 19th St., Saturday, January 21st, 8:00 am to 10:00 am for those who enjoy cold weather outings!

Keep the shinny side up and we'll see you in a few weeks.
