President's Notes

Hello Fellow Mustangers,

I hope that you and your family is safe and healthy. Please continue to pray for Kay and Ed Cooper. Kay is under treatment for throat cancer.

We have a BIG event on September 4th at Wayland University in PLAINVIEW.

We were asked to join the Jimmy Dean Arts and Music festival with our Mustangs. I also asked Tommy to extend an invitation to our friends at Caprock Classic club.

We NEED cars for that event. We have been in Wayland's advertising, and they are a major sponsor.

So please attend, even if it's only for a brief time in the morning or early afternoon.

The event starts at 9am and cars need to be in place by 10am if possible.

Tommy, Art and Ronnie will have more info as the event approaches. There may be a caravan out of Lubbock that morning.

Other items for the club include a new checking account established at First Bank and Trust. We may have two for a short time until we get all of the 'non-profit' paperwork completed.

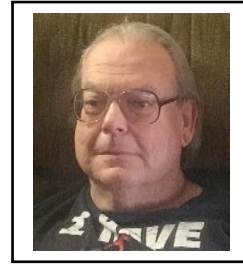

Having an EIN number will allow us to receive our funds from Pollard and FBT and allow us to be a legitimate 'non-profit' in the future.

More details at the monthly meeting at Red Zone on Thursday the 2nd at 7pm.

Stay safe

John

A new member, Rob Irwin was present and he had a 1968 California Special. Tommy reminded the club of Coffee & Cars on Sat. 8/5 and VFW Fish Fry the following week on 8/12.

Michael Zink volunteered to stand in for Jimmy Godfrey, who is moving to join JFR Racing, to handle our Facebook Page.

The club will participate in the Jimmy Dean Music Festival at Wayland in Plainview on Saturday, 9/4/2021 from 10am-2pm. The Festival is promoting our appearance. Club will meet at the National Guard Armory on the east I-27 access road to caravan to the event. Will leave at 9a.m. SHARP!
